2Ai IPCA · Barcelos, Portugal

- Built a Python pipeline for echocardiographic DICOM studies using computer vision and OCR, with structured outputs for downstream research use.
- Converted an open-ended problem into resumable processing, validation queues, review tooling, logging, and a documented cross-platform handoff.
- Optimised a metadata-guided OpenCV source-video matcher from roughly 21 hours to 23 minutes on one representative run.

Software Engineer · Paid Client Project
